[redacted] United States
Penitentiary, Terre Haute, Indiana, advised SA [redacted] on June 28, 1965, that the file of former inmate JOSEPH F. ROCCO, number 1400, was sent to the Federal Record Center, General Services Administration, Chicago, Illinois, for storage.

On July 13, 1965, IC [redacted] caused a review of the records of the USP, Terre Haute, Indiana, at the Federal Records Center, Chicago. These records revealed JOSEPH FRANK ROCCO, registration number 1400-TH, was sentenced September 9, 1942, to two years on a charge of conspiracy and operating an unregistered still. The Classification Questionnaire dated October 15, 1942, revealed that on July 28, 1941, investigators of the Alcohol Tax Unit executed a federal search warrant at 3517 West Belmont Avenue, Chicago, and seized a distillery and miscellaneous equipment. This still produced approximately thirty gallons of untax paid alcohol from about May 1 to June 28, 1940, which resulted in defrauding the Government of $68,000. As a result of these operations, a conspiracy indictment naming the persons involved, namely, FRANK ROCCO (true name JOSEPH FRANK ROCCO), [redacted] and [redacted] was returned.

b7c

On October 8, 1940, investigators of the Alcohol Tax Unit executed a search warrant at 2223 Millard Avenue, Chicago, and seized a distillery and miscellaneous equipment. Evidence of this violation was presented a Federal Grand Jury and two conspiracy indictments were returned, one naming ROCCO, [redacted] and a [redacted] the other [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted].

b6

On August 7, 1941, at 1844 Damen Avenue, Chicago, a third distillery of 1,000 gallon capacity was seized under a federal search warrant. As a result of this seizure and subsequent investigation, a conspiracy indictment, naming ROCCO, [redacted] and [redacted] and four others was returned. The names of [redacted] and [redacted] and [redacted] also appeared in the prosecuting agency's report, and these men were somehow connected with the offenses.

Subject's statement concerning the offense was that he was paid $50 a week for driving a car which trailed other cars that were hauling supplies and illicit liquor, but that he was paid infrequently and never received the stipulated sum. He said he worked for a man known only to him as "TONY" the operator of a large distillery organization.

CG 92-1902

The report revealed, concerning subject's employment, that on May 15, 1942, he became connected with the Food Beverage Company, 5115 West Diversy Avenue, as a stockholder having invested $600 and with [redacted] as his partner. This business was for the purpose of buying large quantities of sugar for the illicit distillery no doubt.

b6

Subject is a musician and plays the saxophone and clarinet.

From March of 1936, to November of 1936, he claims to have been employed by the Paschen Brothers Construction Company as a steel worker.

Subject was picked up by the police several times on suspicion and it was known that he had been employed by various booking joints throughout Chicago according to the prison report.

The psychiatric evaluation of the subject indicated he was of high average intellect, rather nervous and apprehensive and appears to be somewhat unstable. He is quite easily excited and is apt to get into difficulty and having a quick temper. He is somewhat domineering and will probably expect to have his own way.

Additional biographical data from this report appears in other sections of this report.

Subject was paroled on October 11, 1943, at his parole advisor's office, [redacted] Chicago. His approved correspondents were [redacted] his parents and his wife.

He was identified as being possibly an associate of ROCCO IACULLO and was observed in the presence of a number of other men in the car including ROCCO SALVATORE.

CG 92-1902

A newspaper clipping dated November 12, 1950, states that JOSEPH FRANK ROCCO, age 35, 2407 South Oak Park Avenue, Berwyn, Illinois, and two others were arrested on charges of counterfeiting by the Secret Service.

On April 7, 1963, subject's car was observed at the wake and funeral of MIKE SPRANZE.

A "Chicago Tribune" clipping dated May 10, 1961, revealed subject was among a large list of persons who had their automobile titles revoked as a result of the exposure of the Sterling-Harris Company.

III. BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

On May 6, 1965, Chicago T-1 advised that the Oakhurst Land Corporation is reported to have owned approximately 90 per cent of the shares of stock of Marshal Savings and Loan just prior to its going into receivership. JOSEPH F. ROCCO, a horse trainer for SAM BATTAGLIA, was reported to be the secretary of the firm. Oakhurst borrowed $1,500,000 from Marshal Savings and Loan security on 160 acres near Aurora, Illinois. Oakhurst then took $500,000 of this loan and purchased the shares of stock of Marshal and Savings and Loan which was owned by [REDACTED]. It appears that Oakhurst borrowed money from Marshal Savings and Loan and then turned around and gained control of the association with their own money.

JOSEPH ROCCO, 7600 West Dickens, Elmwood Park, Illinois, was contacted at Free Meadow Farm, Pingree Grove, Hampshire, Illinois, in this matter. Prior to interview, ROCCO was advised by SA [redacted] that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult counsel or anyone else in this matter.

ROCCO said he is the same JOSEPH ROCCO who was one of the four shareholders in the Oakhurst Land Corporation. He said that his principal occupation is that of a land promoter and that he only trains race horses at SAM "TEETS" BATTAGLIA's Free Meadow Farm for a hobby. He said the Oakhurst Land Corporation (Oakhurst) and the $1,500,000.00 land loan at Marshall Savings and Loan Association (Marshall) was a legitimate deal. He said he and the other shareholders would have made over $1,000,000.00 if Marshall had paid out the entire loan. He admitted getting a total dividend of $64,625.00 as a 25 per cent shareholder of Oakhurst and said he had reported this amount on his 1964 Federal Income Tax return. He was asked as to the disposition of the money and replied "what difference did it make as long as the taxes were paid, I could have spent it all on a whore or lost it at the race track." He said he had no bank account. He was exhibited copies of the available cancelled checks of Oakhurst payable to him and he said the endorsement of JOSEPH ROCCO on these checks was written by him. He said he did not have his new glasses and could not make out the names of other endorsers except that of his son, RONALD, a Loyola University student on an Oakhurst check for $10,000.00 dated April 24, 1964.

ROCCO said that the man he worked for, SAM "TEETS" BATTAGLIA, had nothing to do with this deal and it was his deal and his alone. He said the land was purchased from someone in Naperville, Illinois, but did not seem to know to whom it was sold. He did not know the reason [redacted] attorney, was paid $70,000.00 by Oakhurst from funds secured by this deal. He said answers to these and other questions

During January, 1951, he applied for Executive Clemency. He participated in a malaria project during 1962. A psychological examination conducted on November 23, 1937 indicated his mental age was that of a boy nine years, seven months old. There was considerable correspondence in the file including a letter indicating that a deportation hearing was held on March 5, 1964 in United States District Court in Chicago.

He was paroled on January 23, 1963 from the State Prison at Joliet and the initial visit by the State Parole Officer indicated he lived with his sister and brother-in-law, [redacted]

Illinois, and was employed by the Albano Bakery, 7700 West North Avenue, Elmwood Park. This employment was arranged on January 12, 1963 by JOE ROCCO, his brother, according to EUGENE ALBANO, age 44, in 1963, who stated he had known the ROCCO family for 25 years. [redacted] was reportedly a motion picture operator at the Today Theatre.

On January 16, 1964, a report was filed indicating TONY ROCCO was now employed by the One Prospect Corporation, care of CARL VERIVE, Superintendent. On January 18, 1964, a report was filed indicating he was now employed by [redacted] telephone [redacted].

[redacted] was reportedly manager and operator of fourteen large apartment buildings there.

A report dated January 22, 1964 indicated TONY ROCCO was a station wagon driver and maintenance man for the One Prospect Corporation at 938 Boxwood Drive. Another address of 4131 Pamella was given as his home address.

He was discharged from supervision on February 15, 1965.

II. BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

During September, 1965, CG T-1 advised one JOE ZAY (phonetic) and a TONY ROCCO frequented the Sahara North Motel in Schiller Park, Illinois, during September, 1965, and were introduced as highly placed members of the Chicago Crime Syndicate. JOE ZAY was identified as SAM BATTAGLIA's right-hand man and as an individual more powerful in the "outfit" than FELIX ALDERISIO. ZAY indicated that he and three unnamed associates planned to finance the erection of a condominium highrise apartment building on Sheridan Road near Loyola University in Chicago; also a building complex and shopping center to be built at a proposed interchange where Milwaukee Avenue meets the Tri-State Tollway. Ray Harrington Shamrock Construction Company, Gary, Indiana, was to construct the projects.

An individual named JOEY FERRARO (phonetic) said the manager of the Sahara North and a partner of JOE ZAY for 30 years took part in some of these conferences. Also one LOU VERIVE (phonetic) acted as an associate of FERRARO, JOE ZAY and TONY ROCCO.

ZAY held meetings in Room 217 of the Sahara North where it appeared he either permanently resided or frequently stayed.

During October, 1965, CG T-2 advised that JOE ZAY (JOE ROCCO) held meetings during October at the Golden Bear Restaurant, Harlem and North Avenues, Elmwood Park, Illinois.

ROCCO was somehow involved with the George W. Fuller Company, a large New York construction firm, and indicated he was going to participate in a $300,000 commission to be paid by George W. Fuller Company for having received the general contract to build the Denver Tower Land project. ROCCO, however, indicated he was not going to receive the $300,000 commission because the Fuller Company did not get the contract.

III. CONTACTS

Long distance toll calls from subject's home telephone number, GL 6-4841, from April 14, 1965 to June 15, 1965 have been previously reported. Investigation concerning the identity of some of the subscribers to the numbers called is set forth below:

[redacted] brother to above
[redacted] an Optometrist.

Also arrested were JOSEPH ROCCO, a former chauffeur for SAM BATTAGLIA before BATTAGLIA was incarcerated in Leavenworth Penitentiary; [redacted] a car thief; [redacted] an employee of the State Highway Department, and one [redacted] All were arrested while playing cards.

The "4 Star Final" edition of the "Chicago Sunday Tribune" contained the following article:

"An assistant Chicago corporation counsel has resigned and two payrollers were suspended yesterday after they were arrested along with gangland figures in an Oak Park gambling raid.

"Harry Croft, 59, of 5425 Ferdinand St., who was assigned to the ordinance enforcement section, submitted his resignation late yesterday to Raymond Simon, corporation counsel.

"Croft and eight other persons are charged with being patrons of a disorderly house. Simon said Croft told him he was innocent of any wrongdoing, but that he submitted his resignation 'to avoid any reflection on the city law department.'

"The raid late Friday climaxed several months of investigation by detectives of the Chicago police intelligence division and furnished authorities with concrete information of an alliance between gangsters and politicians.

"THE TRIBUNE obtained information independently in December and cooperated with police officials in the investigation.

"Highway Aids Seized

"Carmen Gervasio, 58, of 5237 West 23d pl., Cicero, a state highway department engineer, and John Belmonte, 51, of 7722 Belmont av., a county highway engineer, were suspended indefinitely after they were charged with being patrons of a disorderly house.

"Richard H. Golterman, chief engineer of the state highway department, and Thomas Cots, acting superintendent of the county department, said they ordered the suspensions and said the two will be fired if convicted.

"Gervasio and Belmonte were among nine persons seized in the gambling raid which struck at a suspected mob loan center at 107 Humphrey av., in the suburb. The raid was led by Lt. Joseph Healy and Sergeants Timothy Daly and Michael O'Donnell of the intelligence division.

"Freed in Bond

"In addition to gangland figures, employees of the sanitary district and the Chicago corporation counsel's office were seized. All were charged with being patrons of a disorderly house and freed on $1,000 bond for appearance March 21, in Oak Park Circuit Court.

"Others arrested were Alfred Foresto, 47, of 1752 N. Moody av., a sanitary district employee; and his brother, Frank, 56, of 1623 S. East av., Berwyn, who was fired last week as an inspector for the Illinois liquor control commission; and Frank Motto, 47, of 4918 N. Rockwell st., an optometrist with offices at 175 Jackson blvd.

"This is a serious matter and a very thorough investigation with appropriate action will be opened tomorrow," said Vinton Bacon, general superintendent of the sanitary district.

"Pete Kotsos, executive director of enforcement for the liquor commission, said Foresto was fired last week along with three other inspectors after an internal security investigation ordered by Donald G. Adams, commission chairman.

"Others arrested were Anthony Fosco, 60, of 913 S. Oakley av., 25th ward Republican committeeman and a former cigaret tax revenue investigator; Joseph Rocco, 57, of 7600 Dickens av., Elmwood Park, who manages the 400-acre farm of imprisoned gangland boss Sam (Teetz) Battaglia; and Phillip DeProsa, 53, of 5410 Iowa st., a gangland associate and convicted car thief.

"Has an Attack

"Healy said Corbino (Kirby) Caruso, 60, of the Humphrey street address, will be served with a warrant charging him with being the keeper of a disorderly house. Caruso was allowed to remain in his second-floor apartment Friday after suffered what appeared to be a heart attack when raiders pushed their way into the gambling den.

"The investigation of the premises was ordered in November by Police Supt. James Conlisk and Deputy Supt. John Mulchrone after detectives followed Rocco Salvatore, 54, a top aid of Battaglia to the Oak Park home.

"They arrived at the Oak Park address after Salvatore had conferred with Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, the mob's elder statesman, in his River Forest home.

"Since that time, intelligence detectives have watched twice weekly meetings in the supposedly vacant store front on the first floor of the building. Fosco also was observed meeting with Ricca in a River Forest pancake house during the investigation.

"Was Center of Controversy

"Fosco was the center of a controversy in September when it was disclosed he was a state cigaret tax investigator under former Gov. Shapiro. This was during the period of the cigaret tax scandal in which the state lost millions. Fosco was one of the west side bloc G. O. P. committeeman stripped of a patronage by Gov. Ogilvie when Ogilvie was county board president.

"Tho reelected committeeman last June, Fosco was again denied recognition and patronage by the G.O.P. county organization's executive committee. They named Ronald A. Stearney, an attorney, as acting 25th ward committeeman.

"Playing cards and more than $2,500 were found on a table around which some of the men were seated Friday night. Police also seized what appeared to be high-interest loan records and a quantity of Republican precinct tally books as well as polling lists from the 29th ward.

"The corporation counsel is the city's lawyer. His office represents the city in litigation and prosecutes violations of city ordinances. As a member of the ordinance enforcement division, Croft prosecuted ordinance violations."

On March 25, 1969, attempts were made to locate and interview W. P. ROSSO at his place of employment, Rosso and Mastrocco, Incorporated, 1187 Azalea Garden Road, Norfolk, Virginia, with negative results. It was determined through investigation that W. P. ROSSO was currently located in Miami, Florida, the exact location unknown.

Since March 25, 1969, numerous collect telephone calls have been received at the Norfolk Division from ROSSO at Miami, Florida, telephone number 305-563-4283. The Norfolk Division has refused to accept these collect calls from ROSSO.

On April 15, 1969, Mr. WENDELL P. ROSSO, Apartment 304, Royal Ambassador Apartments, 3700 Galt Ocean Road, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, advised Special Agent (SA) [redacted] that subject was unknown to him. ROSSO stated that he is President of Rosso and Mastrocco, Incorporated, 1187 Azalia Gardens Road, Norfolk, Virginia, which corporation operates the giant open air markets in Norfolk. ROSSO stated he recently purchased some highly priced yearling horses at Keene-land Horse Auction Sales and received quite a bit of publicity regarding these purchases. He stated that he has several race horses which he races in the various tracks throughout the country.

ROSSO said that about a year ago a person by the name of [redacted] present whereabouts unknown, but whom he believes to be from Chicago, resided in an apartment next door to him at the Royal Ambassador Apartments and also had a financial interest in the apartment, which he has since sold. He said [redacted] had a lady friend by the name of [redacted] (Last Name Unknown), who also formerly resided in the building and who now lives in Chicago and can be reached through telephone number 315-447-7380. ROSSO stated that he did not know if this number was at [redacted] residence or at her place of employment. He said that during the past six months he has gotten several phone calls from Chicago from an unknown male whose name he cannot recall who has tried to strike up a friendship with him, mentioning to him that he was a friend of [redacted] and that he was also interested in horses. ROSSO stated that he has also had several calls from [redacted] who was trying to befriend him.

He suspects that either [redacted] whom he recalls giving his business card to, or [redacted] possibly passed on his business card to the subject.

Mr. ROSSO stated that he knows nothing further concerning this matter but if he receives any future calls from this person from Chicago he will ascertain his name and thereafter advise SA [redacted].

"By Art Petacque and Thomas J. Dolan

"The state's attorney's office will request that a special grand jury be convened to investigate crime syndicate connections in a scheme to defraud the Chicago Title and Trust Co. of $25 million, it was announced Monday.

"James Murray, first assistant state's attorney, said at a press conference that Judge Joseph A. Power, presiding judge of Criminal Court, would be asked Tuesday to convene a special grand jury, 'hopefully' on April 20.

"Murray said a special grand jury was required because 'it is impossible to present this big a matter to the regular grand jury.'

"Meanwhile, The Sun-Times learned that the U.S. attorney's office is planning to call 134 persons before a federal grand jury in its investigation of the matter.

"Aides of U.S. Atty. Thomas A. Foran, it was learned already have subpenaed books and records from Chicago Title & Trust Co. and plan to serve subpenas on six persons to produce additional records.

"Foran's organized crime section prosecutors began securing its subpenas from the federal grand jury last month.

"Details of scheme told

"Asst. State's Atty. Lawrence E. Morrissey would present the case to the special Cook County grand jury.

"Murray and Morrissey said many corporations and individuals, including prominent members of the financial community, would be subpenaed.

"They said many legitimate businessmen and businesses may have been defrauded.

"The scheme revolves around the establishment by a 33-year-old Lombard contractor of a $2.5 million escrow account at the trust company last December.

"The contractor, John R. Walsh, has been arrested and charged with 11 counts of theft and forgery. He is accused of giving the trust company a worthless check to open the account.

"The account was to be used to pay off a series of bills, including mortgages and liens, on properties he owned, Walsh had contended. Walsh had drawn up a list of 134 creditors to be paid.

"Report $1 million cashed"

"After the trust company began paying the creditors, it learned that the supposedly certified $2.5-million check supplied by Walsh had been drawn on an account at a Miami bank that had a balance of only $1.83.

"The title firm was able to stop payment on some checks issued from the escrow account, but checks totaling at least $1 million reportedly were cashed.

"Walsh first came to the attention of federal officials after a disclosure in The Sun-Times in December, 1968 that he had borrowed $200,000 from the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company of Chicago without collateral. The bank's president, Howard Muss, was later dismissed.

"At least five crime syndicate figures will be investigated in the state and federal inquiries.

"They are Joseph Rocco, Vito Lombardi, Richard Byrnes and Frank and Rocco DeStefano.

"Lombardi, an alleged jewelry fence who was recently convicted of mail fraud, was arrested Friday on a suppressed indictment in connection with the state investigation, Murray said."

Synopsis: Subject continues to reside 7600 on Dickens, Elmwood Park, Illinois. Details concerning same of subject's 1971 activities set forth.

- P* -

DETAILS:

On May 19, 1971, [redacted] Police, Chicago, advised that JOE ROCCO has been driving a Chevrolet from Service Chevrolet, 2828 North Harlem, Chicago, 1971 license DL 203R, Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) 164356K187872, which was loaned to him. This company is owned by [redacted] a cousin of Chicago Alderman JACK SPERLING.

[redacted] advised that one of ROCCO's sons works for the Village of Elmwood Park, and another is a teacher.

CG T-1 furnished the following data:

Informant on June 8, 1971, advised that he has seen JOE ROCCO on several occasions and the last time he saw him he was in the restaurant on the rear west side of Chicago and ROCCO was in the company of [redacted]. He said ROCCO still lives in Elmwood Park, Illinois, and spends time at the farm near Elgin, Illinois, formerly owned by his old boss and "friend", SAM BATTAGLIA. ROCCO at this time discussed his interest in breeding race horses and apparently has a large investment in racing stock at this time.

Informant said prior to BATTAGLIA going to jail, ROCCO lived at BATTAGLIA's farm near Elgin and spent most of his time breeding race horses. When BATTAGLIA was sent to prison, ROCCO lost his closest friend and sponsor. ROCCO told the informant that at the present time SAM BATTAGLIA is in poor health and SAM's wife is also under doctor's care.

Informant stated ROCCO also talked about his real estate investment in Florida. Apparently, informant said, from his conversation, ROCCO owns a condominium at Pompano Beach, Florida. ROCCO also mentioned that he is in "trouble with the States Attorney's Office" and is awaiting trial in a case involving checks, and it is the same case in which VITO LOMBARDI has already been convicted.

Informant stated ROCCO told him to "stay in touch" as he expected to beat the case pending against him in local court, and ROCCO also indicated to the informant that he could probably find him work. Informant stated he will try to maintain contact with ROCCO and advise concerning the BATTAGLIA family and the final disposition of their farm property near Elgin. Informant stated he has heard that this property has been sold and yet ROCCO indicated he still keeps his horses on SAM's old farm.

During October, 1971, CG T-2 advised as follows:

Informant said in recent discussions with his source he inquired about ROCCO SALVATORE who had given him (informant) some trouble in the past when ROCCO was riding high as "TEETS" BATTAGLIA's number one man. He determined

CG 92-8753

SALVATORE still lives on the west side near North Avenue and Austin Streets and has no set-up or status with the present organization. He still visits BATTAGLIA and apparently is standing by waiting for his release. To make matters worse for SALVATORE, he is completely disliked by JOE ROCCO. ROCCO is also close to SAM BATTAGLIA and when BATTAGLIA went to prison ROCCO took over the operation of "TEETS" farm and also many business affairs previously handled by BATTAGLIA. Informant said apparently ROCCO has expressed his dislike for SALVATORE and does not hesitate to show it.

On February 8, 1972, [redacted] advised subject continues to reside at [redacted] Illinois.

DETAILS:

Spot checks of subject's residence at 7600 West Dickens, Elmwood Park, Illinois, reveal subject continues to reside there.

b6
b7C

During September and October, 1972, contact with [redacted] Cook County, reveal subject continues to reside at 7600 West Dickens Street. [redacted] advised subject is still awaiting trial on the Chicago Title and Trust Company swindle.

CG T-1 furnished the following information during June, 1972:

Informant, on June 9, 1972, advised he ran into JOE ROCCO recently and ROCCO is still waiting trial on the "Chicago Title and Trust swindle." ROCCO does not appear worried and said his attorneys have been able to get any number of continuances. Informant said he ran into ROCCO at "Service Chevrolet" on Harlem Avenue in Elmwood Park. This place is run by JOE EISENBERG (phonetic) who has been a close friend of ROCCO for years.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency; nor duplicated within your agency.

Informant stated as far as he knows JOE ROCCO still lives at Pompano Beach. His address there is 133 North Pompano Beach Drive. This is a condominium, and ROCCO lives in an apartment on about the 8th Floor.

Informant stated the "outfit" reportedly owns this building and no doubt ROCCO is in charge of this investment. ROCCO also has interests in "International Investments Consultations, Incorporated." From his source, informant stated ROCCO has been seen in contact with DOMINICK E. BARTONE, an officer of "International." "International Investments" is located in North Miami Beach and the address is believed to be 16924 Northeast 19th Avenue.

Informant stated he tried to find out more about the identity of DOMINICK BARTONE and whether "International Investments" is an "outfit" organization, but stated the only "Hood" connection he knows is JOE ROCCO and his source of information on Florida operations of the Chicago outfit is limited.

Informant stated ROCCO still owns race horses and probably still has them boarded at BATTAGLIA's old farm or a farm in that area. ROCCO told him "the farm has been sold." The name is now "Family Affairs Farm" and the new owner now owns 220 acres, barn, and building of the old BATTAGLIA Farm.

Informant stated either ROCCO or EUGENE DI VITO handled the sale. DI VITO owns Reliance Underground Development Company, Elk Grove Village, 2500 Touhy Avenue. A check for $210,000 was paid the BATTAGLIA family on this purchase. Informant said his source said the transaction went thru the Oak Park National Bank and the money was passed on to the BATTAGLIAs thru the "2500 Touhy Avenue Building Account."

Informant stated another $10,000 had been paid the BATTAGLIAs as earnest money on the deal and this $10,000 was held by the "Chicago Title and Trust." Informant stated JOE ROCCO is well connected at the "Chicago Title and Trust" but how EUGENE DI VITO got involved he was not sure. Informant believed DI VITO possibly was the first purchaser from BATTAGLIA who needed funds when sent to prison. For some period of time during 1969 to 1970, all the expenses of operation for BATTAGLIA's farm were paid by checks on the "2500 Touhy Avenue Building Account."

Informant said the present owner is a guy named "CAMPBELL". He questioned this sale and felt sure "CAMPBELL" had made some sort of agreement with DI VITO or ROCCO to return this farm to BATTAGLIA at a later date.

Informant stated on several occasions in years past he has been on this farm when BATTAGLIA operated from it. In his opinion the price of $220,000 was very reasonable.

CG T-2 furnished the following information:

Informant stated that in the Chicago area all the excavation and sewer contract business done for the city and sanitary district goes to "good friends of the outfit". Though these friends are not La Cosa Nostra (LCN) members themselves, the owners of these companies are associated with Mafia members and policies, and apparently get all of the money making profits.

Informant recalled [redacted]

[redacted]

b7C
b7D

Others operating very successfully and believed having similar connections are:

Palumbo Excavating Company
Hillside, Illinois

Reliance Underground (DI VITO Brothers)
Elk Grove Village, Illinois

Greco Construction Company
Rosemont, Illinois

Informant stated he read in the paper recently that the DI VITO brothers from Elk Grove are the ones who were involved in the "Family Affair Farm" located at Hampshire, Illinois, which is owned by "TEETS" BATTAGLIA.

Informant stated JOE ROCCO is watching out for BATTAGLIA's interest at Hampshire, Illinois, while BATTAGLIA is in prison. He said ROCCO still owns several race horses and these horses are stabled at the BATTAGLIA farm. Informant said the DI VITO brothers and JOSEPH ROCCO have always been close friends and if ROCCO goes to jail on a pending case in Cook County Court the DI VITO brothers are to continue supervising BATTAGLIA's "Family Affairs Farm".

[redacted] Informant stated several weeks ago he ran into [redacted] who operates an air conditioning business. [redacted] mentioned he was doing pretty well and that some time ago he ran into an old friend [redacted] (phonetic). With the help of [redacted] stated he got a good contract with Cook County to do air conditioning work on the new Audy Home construction project. Informant stated that apparently friends of the "outfit" do a lot of work for the city and the county.
